OUR NEXT CONGRESSMAN.

Horace G. Snover was born in Romeo, Sept. 21, 1847. He obtained a good education in the common schools before entering the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, where he pursued a classical course of study, covering a period of four years. He graduated there in 1869, with the degree of B. A. L. L. B. In 1871 he first settled in Wichita, Kan., then a place of about 300 inhabitants, but had to work at painting, driving mules and hearing cattle, and teaching school to raise money to return to his native town, where he arrived in August, 1872. He taught the Christian school near Romeo, in the winter of 1873, and went to Port Huron, Sept. 1, 1874, where he was principal of the graded school for two years. He then engaged in the profession of law with Richard Winsor, Aug. 21, 1877, and afterwards was probate judge for Huron county, which he held three years. The law firm of Snover & Winsor was one of the leading law firms of Huron county. He finally purchased the extensive real estate business of Mr. Winsor and the latter moved to Seattle, Wash. He was married Aug. 27, 1879, to Miss Nellie Williams of Port Huron.

T. H. PARKINSON, who is prominently spoken of as a candidate for representative to the state legislature in the third district of St. Clair county, is making an extra effort to secure the nomination. As the convention is called to meet at Emmet next week Friday, we desire to present a few facts for the consideration of delegates. Mr. Parkinson has always been a strong republican and has worked hard for the success of the party in every campaign. He has never held any office outside of the township in which he resided, in fact has never asked anything from the party, except when he was a candidate two years ago for the nomination of representative. Now would it not be only fair and right to give him the nomination at the convention next Friday? You can depend on it if he secures the nomination no grass will be let grow under his feet in hustling for votes to aid in carrying the district for the republican party. Brockway township will give him a hearty support.

Political Pointers.

A. Tosch: "I will not be a candidate for representative in the third district this fall."

The delegates elected from Lynn to attend the county convention at Port Huron are James Massie, Walter Sheersmith and John Murray.

The Capac Journal learns that T. H. Bottomley, of that village, would like to have the republican nomination for representative in third district, and that S. S. Brooker hankers after the nomination for county treasurer.

John Murray, editor of the Sunday Herald, Port Huron, attended the Populist convention at Croswell on Monday in the hopes of turning it for Carleton for Congress. The delegates refused to be turned and nominated Carleton Peck, of Lapeer county. Mr. Peck formerly ran for the same office on the Prohibition ticket.

Democrats in 1892 wore crapes on their arms and roosters in their hats and actually seemed to believe they were the most oppressed people on the continent. They have had several object lessons since that time. A careful study of the statistics for 1892 shows that the entire amount of duty under the McKinley law in that previous year amounted to just $2.66 per capita.

Two years ago T. H. Parkinson, of Brockway township, was a strong candidate for the republican nomination for representative from the Third district of St. Clair county, standing a tie with Albert Tosch on the first ballot, each receiving 15 votes. This fall he again comes forward as a strong candidate, and has the unanimous support of his own township and good support in other places. He has been a life-long republican and is a pleasant gentleman and good business man. He may be nominated Sept. 28th.—Capac Journal. It is gratifying to notice other papers publish a good word for our worthy townsman. Mr. Parkinson deserves the nomination and should receive it in all fairness.

A large line of tablets, box paper, envelopes, ink, mucilage, pens, pencils, slates, etc., just received at Holden's drug store.

Don't Snub.

Don't snub a boy because he wears shabby clothes. When Edison, the great inventor, first entered Boston, he wore a pair of yellow linen breeches in the depth of winter.

Don't snub a boy because his home is plain and unpretending. Abraham Lincoln's early home was a log cabin.

Don't snub a boy because of the ignorance of his parents. Shakerpeare, the world's poet, was the son of a man who was unable to write his own name.

Don't snub a boy because he chooses a humble trade. The author of "Pilgrim's Progress" was a tinker.

Don't snub a boy because of physical disability. Milton was blind.

Don't snub a boy because of dullness in his lessons. Hogarth, the celebrated painter and engraver, was a stupid boy at his books.

Don't snub a boy because he stutters. Demosthenes, the great orator of Greece, overcame a harsh and stammering voice.

Don't snub any one; not alone because some day they may outstrip you in the race of life, but because it is neither kind, nor right, nor Christian.
